Winter Reprieve

2018! A new start! Fresh beginnings! After the bustle of the holiday season begins to wear off, (the over-indulgences, the excess of noise and spending, company and sinfully rich food)- take a break-find your way to the Library oasis...

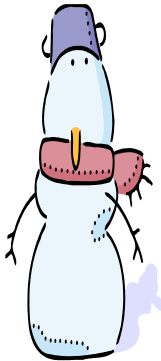

What we lack in sunshine we make up for in bright horizons. Browse our bookshelves. Surely there is something there amid the stacks for the weary-in-need-of-improvement-soul. We have books on tax-preparation, diet and exercise, scrapbooking and decorating. There is even a book or two on organizing closets, building a sauna and updating the old resume. We have an enviable collection of book length audio CDs for your listening pleasure. There are DVDs of popular television shows, old movie classics, History Channel specials and Minnesota Iron Range History. Chances are, if you can think about some way to improve your life, we have a book, DVD or audio to instruct you along the way.

AND GOOD NEWS! We have a 24/7 card catalog ON LINE at www.hallettlibrary.org--- AND we have over 2700 e-book titles! Visit <http://jessiehallett.overdrive.com>

So you see, we have JUST what you need right here! Your one-stop, multigenerational and full-service Library is at your disposal. Winter will fly right by, if only you would join us ~

Story Hour at the JFHML is on temporary hiatus. Stay tuned!

Hot Reads for Cold Nights 2018

The JFHML Friends Foundation meets the 2nd Tuesday of each month at 5:00 p.m. and we are LOOKING for new Members! If you are passionate about your community Library, find out how you can make a difference! The Friends group was formed in February 2011 as the 501(c-3) fundraising arm of the Library. See how you can help the staff at the Library provide services to our patrons. The Friends opened Backstreet Books in July of 2011 and have raised tens of thousands of dollars for the JFHML! Store is open during Library hours. Come and check out our like-new books, greeting cards and Repurposed Book Art.
